

A Prayer for Guidance

Kate Waitzkin

Trust your heart, dear friend

It will not lead you astray

Open to the gentle guidance of your spirit and breathe into the courage that will allow you to follow the path it so gracefully offers

With practice, your choices will fill with the ease and softness of deep, inner knowing and your actions will be a reflection of self-love, respect and peace

Trust your heart, dear friend
